Fill your afternoons with art at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, Fuller Craft Museum and the Institute of Contemporary Art. Restrictions do apply.

5. Autographed David Ortiz Bat and Boston Red Sox Tickets

Own a piece of baseball history. This Louisville Slugger was autographed by David Ortiz and donated by Olympia Sports. David Ortiz was the first player in Red Sox history to hit 40-or-more home runs in three consecutive seasons. He has been a top 5 MVP vote-receiver four times and been named an all-star player three times. What's more, you and four friends can catch Ortiz in action on Wednesday, July 18, 2007, at Fenway. Tickets are located in the field box. Some restrictions may apply.

6. Three Weeks of Consecutive Advertising

The Employment Times is the “best resource for finding current New Hampshire, Northern Massachusetts and Maine jobs and career advancement opportunities.” Enjoy three consecutive weeks of advertising in the print and online versions of The Employment Times and recruit quality employees more efficiently and cost effectively.

7. Four-Course Dinner for Six

Enjoy a four-course dinner for six from the Portland Harbor Hotel. Chef Jeff Landry, recently named the Maine Restaurant Association’s Chef of the Year, will prepare a four-course sumptuous meal for six. He will please your palate with innovative American Cuisine attentively served at the hotel’s restaurant, Eve’s at the Garden, or in your home. Date to be mutually agreed upon.

8. Six Days, 5 Nights on Kennebago Lake

The perfect place to fish, hike, canoe, or just sit on the dock and listen to the loons. Enjoy a two-bedroom cottage on Kennebago Lake with all the amenities you need (running water, electricity, a canoe) and none that you don't (no TV or maid service). Guaranteed moose sightings, fish right off the dock, and magnificent hikes overlooking the Rangeley lakes. Includes dinner for two at the legendary Grant's Camps lodge, just a quarter-mile walk down the road. Time to be mutually agreed upon, holiday weekends and September excluded.

9. Two Airline Tickets from Jet Blue

You will love flying Jet Blue. Never feel cramped sitting in coach again. They have large leather seats and plenty of legroom. Sip Dunkin Donuts coffee while you watch DIRECTV or listen to XM Satellite radio. These two round-trip tickets are valid from any city to any city. Dates and times subject to availability and blackouts. Some restrictions do apply.

10. Two Night Stay at the Fairmont Bermuda

Enjoy a two-night stay at either The Fairmont Hamilton Princess Hotel or The Fairmont Southampton. Amidst the hibiscus and oleander, on the shores of a picturesque natural harbor, The Fairmont Hamilton Princess Hotel and the Fairmont Southampton are elegant tributes to the old-world splendor that is Bermuda. Take a dip in your choice of fresh or saltwater pools, frolic with the dolphins at dockyard or take a carriage ride into town.

These hotels symbolize all that Bermudians hold dear — old-fashioned courtesy, timeless quality and genuine hospitality. New U.S. Federal Law requires that travelers entering or re-entering the United States after January 1, 2007, from any international destination (now including the Caribbean, Bermuda, Panama, Mexico and Canada) must present a government-issued passport to clear Customs. Blackout dates May/June. Other restrictions may apply.
